Union Bank of California (UBOC) is committed to supporting the communities it serves. Through its 10-year community reinvestment act commitment, finalized in 1995, UBOC has pledged to make resources available to promote economic development and to develop innovative outreach programs that will enable UBOC and its constituents to prosper and grow in the 21st century.

In 1996, the UBOC Foundation pledged to award up to $100,000 annually through the year 2000 to nonprofit agencies working in the Bayview Hunters Point area. This year, the second of the campaign, the foundation selected 10 local community organizations to receive $10,000 each.

“UBOC is pleased to recognize the efforts of these 10 organizations that are working -- without thought for profit -- to improve the quality of life in the Bayview Hunters Point community,” says Minoru Noda, deputy chairman, CFO and CCO. “Their efforts are noble and deserve to be rewarded.” This contribution represents one of the
