

TechScribe Communications Oakland Strategic Copywriter Joins the Prescott Joseph Center Board of Directors

The founder of TechScribe Communications, Pam May, has joined the board of directors at the Prescott Joseph Center for Community Enchantment and has also been named their marketing chair.

Oakland, CA (Vocus/PRWEB) July 22, 2011

Pam May, Principal and Founder of TechScribe Communications Oakland strategic copywriters , joined the Prescott Joseph Center for Community Enhancement's board of directors and was appointed as marketing chair. Prescott Joseph Center is a non-profit organization located in the Prescott district of West Oakland, California. The Center promotes the individual self-esteem of citizens in the San Francisco Bay Area, through health education, skills training and cultural programs, thus supporting healthy families and economic self-sufficiency.

As marketing chair, May is helping to build cause awareness around the many helpful programs and initiatives that the Prescott Joseph Center is implementing. She recently issued a press release on behalf of the Center announcing the strategic partnership between Detroit Lions' Running Back Jahvid Best and the Northern California Breathmobile, a custom-built mobile pediatric asthma clinic providing treatment to children at school sites throughout the Bay Area. Best is pledging support to raise awareness for asthma management and treatment.

"As a Constant Contact partner, TechScribe is also able to assist the Prescott Joseph Center with email marketing, event marketing, social media marketing and online survey capabilities," said May. "Constant Contact's services are proven tools that help non-profits to connect with their community and donors, building rapport and successful relationships."

TechScribe Communications has helped various clients to engage their audience in print and online.
